

Springville Elementary School

Web Publishing Form for Students

Springville Elementary School is proud of its employees' and students' accomplishments. At times pictures are a great way to illustrate this fact. For example, pictures may be taken of group activities, award recipients, performances, class group pictures, field trips, and experiments and projects. If for some reason you object to your child's photograph or intellectual property being posted on the web page, indicate your preference on this form. Springville Elementary has its own webpage. In addition, some of the teachers have classroom web pages.
